OBJECTIVES

The International Day for the Elimination of Violence Against Women is a global advocacy effort aimed at preventing and eliminating the instances of violence in all forms that women are subjected to around the world. The premise of the seminar is to sensitize stakeholders belonging to various sections of society on aspects relating to gender issues. Furthermore, it is an effort to reflect and examine issues relating to gender issues and finally to come up with solutions to these issues, more specifically stopping violence in all forms against women. It is an attempt to address and study issues such as gender rights, reproductive rights of women, gender specific crimes, gender bias and efforts towards gender mainstreaming. The international community has spoken quite clearly on issues of gender equality and empowerment through various instruments. However, the blunt reality of gender issues is very far from the standards laid down jointly by the international community and there is a need to bridge this gap. Hence, this seminar is an initiative to fill this gap and make people aware about the gender issues in India on the occasion of The International Day for the Elimination of Violence Against Women.
